Weekly Fundraising Tip: Go for the Gold!

We're in the final week of our Superhero 5K Camp Challenge. Team Indyccredible (formerly known as Chapter 1) is inching forward on Team Birdie's (formerly known as Chapter 2) strong lead. Every dollar counts and you can make a real difference in these final days!

Of course Candlelighters has some sweet incentives for our fundraising heroes: cooling towels, hydroflasks, performance shirts, but remember this camp challenge comes with it's own reward. The losing team will have to seranade the winners with a song of the victor's choice at the upcoming Camp Wrap party! And the individual highest fundraiser of each team will be awarded the coveted Golden Firefly Cape. A stunning masterpiece featuring a firefly holding up a #1 foam finger and an over 75% likelihood of aquiring both sequins and feathers between now and next week. Choose wisely. Join the winning team.

Weekly Challenge: Happy Trails!

There is no challenge this week, just an earnest call to do what you can do! Each dollar truly does make a difference for us to provide services to children and families affected by childhood cancer. Be as super as I know you are. Hope to see you there!
